

110 Employers at the Diversity Job Fair - November 17th, 2017 Amway Center Sponsored by OrlandoJobs.com

PRESS RELEASE UPDATED: OCT 27, 2017 14:01 EDT

Over 6,500 W-2 Jobs, Career Expert Speakers and Free Professional Head Shots

ORLANDO, Fla., October 17, 2017 (Newswire.com) - For the ninth straight year, the largest gathering of employers, jobs, job seekers and career experts in the Southeast all meet at the Amway Center on Nov. 17, 2017 from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. If you're looking for a job, The Florida Blue, Florida Classic Career Expo & Diversity Job Fair will be the place to be.

Central Florida unemployment rate may be 3.8 percent but that doesn't even come close to telling the real story about the local job market. Whether you are unemployed, underemployed, displaced to Orlando from the hurricane in Puerto Rico or just looking for a great job, this job fair will be the place to meet over 100 real employers (W-2 Jobs). A variety of employers from over 15 sectors (both private and public) will be on hand with over 6,250 open jobs. Jobs in health care, hospitality, education, trade skills, engineering, customer service, police, government defense industry and many more

"Job seekers in Central Florida apply to many jobs but never hear back from the employers. We are so proud to get so many top-notch employers in one place for 4 hours so anyone looking for a job or upgrade their current situation have a place to talk to a real person about a real W-2 job," said Roger Lear, President of OrlandoJobs.com.

Top notch companies participating include UPS, Tech Data, Orange County Government, Regions, Mears, Bags, Harris, Orlando Health, Florida Blue just to name a few. Over 110 employers attending will be on hand on Nov. 17th. Updated information about all job fair related information for job seekers can be found at www.OrlandoJobs.com/jobfair.

Job seekers in Central Florida apply to many jobs but never hear back from the employers. We are so proud to get so many top-notch employers in one place for 4 hours so anyone looking for a job or upgrade their current situation have a place to talk to a real person about a real W-2 job.

As important as the jobs, the career expo has four world-class career speakers who can help you tackle the job search world. Lisa Maile's session, "Power Interviewing: Present the Strongest, Most Marketable YOU," is so powerful it will make you realize that your appearance, nonverbal communication, and soft skills when perfected may be more important than many of the skills needed for the job. All sessions take place for FREE at the AMWAY Center (DEX Vista Imaging room).

"This job fair is the real deal. We only take companies with real jobs and real recruiters so you can have a fantastic chance to find great jobs from companies; many you may never even of heard from. Our career experts will tell you the real story about your job search so you can stop wasting time on the computer with no feedback and meet your next employer face to face.", said Lear states. "This is a great day for Central Florida and it is completely free for the job seeker".

The 2017 Florida Blue, Florida Classic Career Expo & Diversity Job Fair on Nov.17, 2017 is free to the public and job seekers are urged to sign up today. Free parking at the GEICO Garage sponsored by Hilton Grand. Employers who want to reserve space at this event can do that here: www.orlandojobs.com/diversity.
